MOTHER OF GOD CHURCH

DECEMBER 06 {SU} 2009 7:00 PM

119 W 6TH STREET, COVINGTON KENTUCKY

On an evening's concert that has become a winter ritual, join the Camerata in a celebration of Mary in music from the medieval to the present. This concert features an Ave by Josquin, a Magnificat setting by Vivaldi, new works by Portuguese composer Mario Ribeiro and Ohio composer Robert Benson.

GLENDALE LYCEUM

FEBRUARY 28 {SU} 2010 4:00 PM

865 CONGRESS AVENUE, GLENDALE

Fragrant settings of choral sound bookended by Britten's Five Flower Songs and Lauridsen's Les Chansons de Rose, this concert will also include new music by local composers and "Beehive" from Mist of Tears by Jere Hutcheson, our 2008 composition contest winner.

Well, it really could be called wine, appetizers and song—but women will be singing too! Join the Camerata in a unique and sensuous concert experience as Cincinnati's fine chefs pair wine to food while the Camerata provides specifically selected music to match. Bring your appetite. Reservations required | 859 491 2362.
